Evernote Issues

Sidebar Changes

- Ability to remove “All Notes” icon - not required when using Notebooks list, so duplicated and takes up too much screen realestate
- Ability to remove “Recent Notes” section - not required and takes up too much screen real estate
- Ability to remove “New Notes” button - takes up too much screen real estate
Moving Notes between Notebooks

- Remove confirmation dialog “Change Access” every time a note is moved
-
- NB Notebook is NOT shared
Stange Search “Thing"

- When accessing a saved search, the highlighted red area appears above and takes up screen realestate for no apparent reason
- “All Notes” has a strange “Null” search criteria at the top too
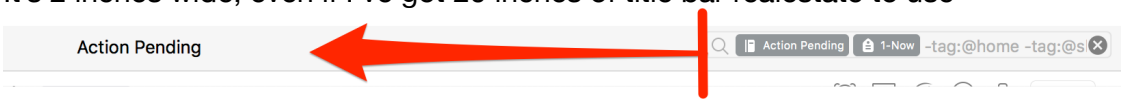
Annotation Feature

- Some images don’t give the “Annotate this Image” option

Search Dialog Box


- Can the dialog box for search be wider, and or dynamically scale based on application window size?
- It’s 2 inches wide, even if I’ve got 20 inches of title bar realestate to use
